TO INFORM, TO REPORT, TO PROMOTE

25 Cents

The themes of Independence Day Parades in Millbury and Sutton were an expression of gratitude extended to all military service men and women, especially those who participated in the Gulf War. Sutton chose as its theme "Sutton Salutes the Troops," while Millbury chose "Proud to be American." Photos throughout this week's edition reflect these themes. Please note: names used as borders below do not correspond to the pictures. They are a listing of the area servicemen and women who served during the Gulf War. Photos on Pages 2 and 3 show the Gulf War veterans receiving citations. In Millbury, the veterans received plaques and certificates from the Selectmen on behalf of the Town, and from Bill Kane on behalf of the Lion's Club. In Sutton, the veterans received citations from the selectmen on behalf of the Town and from the House and Senate, as presented by Senator Matthew Amorello and Representative Richard Moore.

At this time, we would like to thank our advertisers, who make it possible for us to bring you this pictorial and all the year's stories, pictures, and events. The next time you require a service or product, remember the advertisers on these pages and in future editions—they are committed to your community and show that commitment by supporting us in our efforts "To Inform, To Report, To Promote."

DEADLINE

The deadline for all submissions to the Millbury-Sutton Chronicle is Saturday noon of the week prior to publication. The office is closed on Saturdays, but announcements, subscription renewals, etc. may be left in the mail box to the right of the side entrance door.

The world according to us.

It's a small place, our world.
It's made up of nearby communities and farms and neighbors we know by name.

Our headquarters are here. All our business is here.
And our interests and loyalties are here.

We're an independent community bank — and we have one purpose: to take care of our small world.

Your deposits with us are invested locally — in loans to your neighbors and communities. They're not invested somewhere else — for somebody else's benefit.

This area is our world, and you and your neighbors are the only people in it.

That makes us unworlly, doesn't it?

You bet it does.
